

John J. Peterson

CHARLESTON, Utah.—John J. Peterson, 78, retired farmer, died at the home of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jerone Peterson, Sunday evening.

He was born March 23, 1884, in the Salt Lake City Second Ward, son of Samuel and Karen Jensen Peterson. He was married July 14, 1886, to the late Frances Smith, who died 12

Four sons were born to them, three of whom are now living: J. Wayne Peterson, S. Leon Peterson, and A. Ewing Peterson. John J. Peterson also is survived by 17 grandchildren and five great

Peterson of Salt Lake; a sister, Mrs. Elton Christensen of Salt Lake, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Maria Olson of Washington. For 35 years he was engaged in the implement business in Salt Lake and in 1910 he came to Heber City in charge of the business of the Consolidated Wagon and Machine Company. In 1916 he moved to Center Creek on a farm which he operated until his health failed three years ago.

He was an active member of the Church, filling a mission to Denmark from 1898 to 1901, serving as a ward teacher, Sunday School teacher, etc. He held the office of High Priest at the time of his death.

Services will be held Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the Charleston Ward in charge of Bishop Wayne Whiting. Interment will be in the Heber Cemetery. Friends may call at Olin Brothers Mortuary in Heber Monday and at the home of John Foreman in Charleston Monday, Tuesday and Tuesday until time for the services.

Charleston

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Charleston ward chapel for John Peterson, who died last Sunday night. Bishop Wayne Whiting officiated. The chorus sang, "Oh, My Father." The opening prayer was offered by John H. Price. Marjorie Provost rendered a solo; Bishop Rasband gave the opening address. The chorus sang, "Abide With Me," and President H. Clay Cummings was the second speaker, followed by Bishop Whiting. Dona Montgomery and two sisters sang, "In The Garden." The closing prayer was offered by James Ritchie. Bishop Lindsay of Center Creek dedicated the grave. Interment was in the Heber cemetery. Many out of town friends and relatives were present.

Charleston

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Charleston ward chapel for John Peterson, who died last Sunday night. Bishop Wayne Whiting officiated. The chorus sang, "Oh, My Father." The opening prayer was offered by John H. Price. Marjorie Provost rendered a solo; Bishop Rasband gave the opening address. The chorus sang, "Abide With Me," and President H. Clay Cummings was the second speaker, followed by Bishop Whiting. Dona Montgomery and two sisters sang, "In The Garden." The closing prayer was offered by James Ritchie. Bishop Lindsay of Center Creek dedicated the grave. Interment was in the Heber cemetery. Many out of town friends and relatives were present.